Findings:

HWS staff Investigated the complaint on 5-2-2016 and found there to be eight (8) 55-gallon containers of used oil on the property within the maintenance area. The containers were closed and no sign of leakage was evident. HWS walked the entire property and did not find any evidence of oil spills or discharges. Some of the containers used to store the used oil were not properly labeled. Mr. Bombo labeled the containers during the inspection. A used oil recycling company located in South Carolina picked up the used oil.
