Janet,

I have not submitted a quarterly report for this site because we are having non-payment issues with them. Without getting into the details too much we have invoices from several months back that have not been paid so I've temporarily suspended work on the project. The client contact knows the work has been suspended and the report has not been submitted. We hope to receive payment soon so we can continue work on the project.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Thanks,

Leo
